14th Semi Annual
Career Seminar for Math Majors

What Do You Do with A Math Degree?
Three Distinguished Professionals Tell You About Their Careers

Robert Hecht-Nielsen
BS in Mathematics, ASU, 1971
PhD in Mathematics, ASU, 1974
Founder, HNC Software, Inc.
Professor, Electrical and Computer Engineering, UCSD

Beth Smith
BA in Mathematics, SDSU, 1992
MA in Applied Mathematics, UCSD, 1993
Mathematics Assistant Professor
Grossmont College

Saul Molina
BA in Applied Mathematics, UCSD, 1998
Assistant Systems Administrator
Mathematics Department, UCSD

APM 6438
Tuesday, April 20th at 3:30pm

Come and listen to these speakers talk about:
• What they have done with a Mathematics degree.
• Their current jobs.
• How their training in Mathematics has provided value.
• Lessons they have learned.
• Important information about the current job market.

Refreshments will be served

Space is limited. Reserve your seat by sending an email to jbitmead@ucsd.edu